The assistance from Chenoa was amazing! By getting the help from Chenoa my husband and i could get our first home. In the position we were in, at the time, was very stressful and Chenoa helped ease some of that stress with the help we needed to get into our home. Were thankful we have a home we can call our own now that we finally are setteled in and can actually do the things we want to improve anything we want. Not that this house needs improvements but its nice to be able to do whatever i want. Like even painting a room a color we want is something so refreshing to be able to do without having to ask a landlord first. Saying that we are "owners" of a home is scary but at the same time were very thankful we can start this journery of owning a home. Were very thankful to Cheona also for the help they gave us.
