The American Dream of owning a home defines the purpose of why we live up to the Democracy of this Beautiful Country. It clearly defines Freedom for All! Dismissing this type of assistance only hurts us more where our people will continue to feel enslaved to the workforce without any prize or satisfaction from the fruits of their labor. Furthermore, this stimulates the economy and encourages people to work more so that they can one day be debt free and own their homes free & clear. Without the Fown Payment Assistance.. How does one feel encouraged and motivated to better themselves, their family and financial growth? Remember, this is America and the biggest dream one has is to be a Home Owner.
