Ability to help more borrowers

All Races Equally

We help people afford the American Dream...that is our slogan. With the Chenoa program, it has helped so many families afford what they once thought was impossible. Many of them are able to afford the payments, they just don't have the ability to save up enough money for the down payment and closing costs. In Florida, we are a high cost state so the closing costs hurts more borrowers than other places.

The Chenoa fund has helped countless families get into homes when no other options for down payment was available. All of these borrowers are credit worthy and have stable income, but just lack the savings to help fund the down payment and closing costs.
