Ability to help more borrowers

Minorities

There are many families that maintain their home but it's hard for them to save. I have a Man right now that is married and has 4 kids, he is renting and would love the opportunity to purchase a home. The 100% financing program could've helped his family.

Being a loan officer is my career, knowing that I can help families that dream of having their own home when they think they can't, make this job even more rewarding.

These programs, bring people together for seminars and gives the community hope that they can be homeowners.
