My name is Ruby Kelly and I had worked in health services for 31 years. I was raising two children as a single mother. I could not come up with the down payment for the home if it was not for Chenoa Funds. I feel the assistance was a blessing from God and I feel all people who contribute to positive community should be able to own a home in the community they help to support. I really appreciate the help and I hope this help is available for others. Please think about the impact this has on the individual and the community they have served.

Chenoa fund truly helped us in making the American dream come true , and securing us with a home that we would have otherwise not been able to get as soon as we did .
