There are people out there that have good credit, job and residence stability, paying their debts and rents on time that unfortunately are challenged to save enough monies for the required down payment. For some, the down payment is the only limiting factor that prevents them from achieving the American dream of home ownership. With our current rental market and high rents folks can benefit from home ownership now more than ever.

Down payment is the biggest challenge my clients face. My clients have good jobs and have seen their income rise with the better economy but student loans and other debts continue to make it hard for them to save money to buy a home. Without programs like Chenoa these people might have to wait years to become homeowners. Instead, they get a fair rate and payment and a chance to take advantage of the strong housing market.
